

PLEASE don't in any way weaken Indiana's telephone privacy law.
Even my bank has no reason to call my home, much less any other such institution. The CBA's "established business relationships" should be for the consumer to utilize, not the banks.